LADIES' DELIGHT!

RELIEF COME AT LAST.

WISNER'S Washing Machine, Patented Sept. 26th, 1854, is a large tub with zinc fitted on the bottom, also on the under side of the rubber. It stands on a stool, and weighs about 25 lbs; is simple and handy and has been thoroughly examined and tried by thousands at the West within the past year, who pronounce it to be the best labor saver ever offered to the public. It has been tested sufficiently long to prove that when ever it has been used properly, it will tell a better story for itself than I can communicate. Give it a trial, and you will be entirely satisfied of its superior merit.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

NO. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immensurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library on legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superor facilities for obtaining patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practicioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON," Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,"

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MISCELLANY.

"SIX OF ONE AND HALF-A-DOZEN OF THE OTHER."

"Now, dearest Fred," she softly said,
"You must abandon smoking:
It spoils your looks—and then your breath—
Indeed it's most provoking."
Did God decree that man should be
A chimney flue regarded?
Then, darling Fred, let it be said,
Tobacco you've discarded."

"Haw, well, my dear," said Fred, "I fear,
That will not be so easy;
But, like a man, I'll try a plan,
And do the best to please ye.
Did God intend that woman's sex
Such wondrous things should brew, love,
As bustles, bloomers, crinolines,
Or hoops-de-doodou-do, love?

"But, really, if"—whiff, whiff, whiff, whiff—
"And mind you, I'm not joking—
If you'll abandon crinoline,
By Jove!—I'll give up smoking."

COVERDALE MARRIED

The Sequel and Conclusion of Harry Coverdale's Courtship.

D'Almayne did as he was desired. It would be curious to analyze the feelings of those two as they walked, side by side, arm in arm: Arabella Crofton had made a slave—a slave she meant to use too—and her proud step and erect head showed her sense of superiority. D'Almayne felt that he was mastered, but his subtle brain told him it was only for a time, that he would find means to break the chain. What means, he did not exactly fix upon; but there were dark thoughts at work within him as his eyes now and then glanced from the ground on which they were bent, to the bold handsome confident face of the woman at his side. Two persons knew his secret—Kate and his companion—did he entertain similar feelings towards each? He asked himself the question in that dreamy sort of way that men fall into when a sudden trouble comes upon them. His answer was that he did not. He had had what he called love—others might give it a very different name—for Kate. He felt sure that she would not injure him; that she had no motive to use to his own injury, though she might thwart some of his plans. With Miss Crofton it was very different. At first sight he seemed conscious—so quick is the intelligence which enables some natures to penetrate into others which have points of similarity—that she was an adventurer. To such a character he naturally attributed unscrupulousness and indifference to the fate of others, as well as a propensity to seek for aggrandisement, no matter at whose expense. This first impression seemed now to him to be confirmed beyond all possibility of doubt, and he thought that if that woman were not, like him, stained with crime it was only because she had been born more fortunate, not better than himself. That thought upheld him as he trod step by step with her, but it made him also but the more dread her more.

Miss Crofton spoke first. "Is Mr. Coverdale very fond of his wife?"

"I think so."

"Do they live happily together?"

"I have not seen them together since their marriage. They appeared to be much attached before it."

"But you know I do not suppose that you have been here for a day even without hearing. Tell me! I want to know."

What, thought D'Almayne, could she want to know for. He could not conceive—but he told her all he had heard, which, as is usual in such cases, was more than the truth.

"I thought," said Miss Crofton, "that she was not the sort of woman to hold him."

"Do you know Mr. Coverdale, then?" inquired D'Almayne with quickness.

The lady hesitated—the color mounted up on her cheeks. She shook her head as though about to answer in the negative, but she replied "Yes—that is—I did very slightly, years ago."

"You seem to know his character?"

"Oh, his is a character easily read, and I am quick at reading characters." The emphasis on the last word, and the look which ac-accompanied it effectually silenced D'Almayne.

From that time all seemed to go on quietly at the hall. A stranger looking at the party as they sat quietly by the evening fireside, or chattered around the table, as strolled along the walks, would have noted nothing particular. The volcano which has been still for ages, around whose sides vines have climbed, and forests grown, and on whose rocky terraces gardens have been planted and cottages built, looks peaceful enough, but there is that in its bosom which may some day pour red hot lava over the fertility which it has suffered to surround it. The lake which looks so placid and calm to-day, sleeping in the bright sunbeams, and giving back the unclouded heavens, and the ray gilded cliffs, was yesterday black as evil, and troubled as an unquiet conscience. Even now in its depths the waters are wearing and eating against the whitening bones of those who trusted to its serenity, and were destroyed by its rage. If we could only look below into the volcano, or into the heart, what should we see? If we could but realize the old fable, and put a window at every man's breast; well, perhaps, it is better that we cannot. We should not shake hands with so many people. But the novelist is privileged to peep into the heart. To peel off its outer husk of composure—to turn back its thin veil of sincerity. To watch the alembic where thoughts are distilled—to touch the chords and listen to hear whether they ring out true concords, or jarring discords of falsehood. It is only the novelist who may do it. If you knew those whom he describes—if you knew yourself, perhaps, you would not hear it even from him. It might touch you and yours too nearly—but fictitious personages, those whom you do not know, are Marionettes you know upon a puppet stage, and you may apply their history or not apply it as you please.

The Electors of Rhode Island.

The electors of Rhode Island, without regard to past political differences, who are opposed to the present Federal Administration, and in favor of the platform of principles adopted by the Philadelphia Convention, June 17th, 1856, are requested to elect delegates from their several cities and towns, equal in number to their representation in both branches of the General Assembly, to a Convention to be held at the State House in Providence, on Wednesday, the 4th day of January, 1860, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of nominating a ticket of State officers; and also for the purpose of electing delegates from this State to the National Republican Convention of 1860, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before them.

It is recommended that the city and town committees assemble the primary meetings by calls in accordance herewith.

☞ Our employees insist upon anjoying their annual New Year's holiday to-day. Consequently no paper will be issued from our office to-morrow.

New Years.

A great many men have written New Year's addresses in rhyme and esteemed themselves poets, and so they were practically for they brought sunshine to the hearts, and silver to the pockets of the carrier boys, and it always seemed to us that when our Saviour blessed the children, he brought the poetry and beauty of religion nearer our homes and made it dearer to us than it ever was before, and so if men write addresses to brighten the eyes of frost-pinched, rosy cheeked boys on New Year's morning, it is all well enough.

Yesterday, New Year's, threw a huge Yule log down into the snow for us to sit upon and look back at the days that are gone, just as a traveller rests in his long journey, and thinks about the faces that have passed him on the road, and how in the morning he saw the flowers raise their heads to see if the sun had on his dark mantle or his golden crown; and then he recollects the villages strung along the road and perhaps one or two cities, he remembers pale faced women who have looked out at the windows at him as if they were heart-broken, and the children that played and rolled in the dirt.

We are sitting on the Yule log in the snow, and although there are thousands of people at our side, yet each is invisible to the other, just as the years are in eternity. Let us look back.

Last night the Old Year died, at twelve o'clock we sat over the fire and somebody sung to us, we don't know who it was, for there was no one there,—

"He lieth still, he doth not move,
He will not see the dawn of day,
He hath no other life above.
He gave me a friend and a true, true love,
And the New Year will take 'em away.

Old Year you shall not die,
We did so laugh and cry with you,
I've half a mind to die with you
Old year, if you must die,

And yet he did die, and altho' some men died with him, yet we are left to welcome

"A new foot on the fern, my friend,
And a new face at the door, my friend,
A new face at the door.

If we should attempt to ever sketch the varied moral, social and political events of the past twelve-months, our little paper would sink from over freight. Much has occurred that is to be regretted, and much that elicits our warmest approbation and regard.

A history of the leading characteristics of the year would fill volumes; an analysis of the causes that combined and co-operated to produce them would overwhelm the world with essays and the lives of the men and women that have been the heros and heroines on little or larger stages of domestic or public life, would be enough to cover all the realities of life with seeming romance, but upon investigation only convince us "that truth is stranger than fiction." But the only real benefit to be derived from retrospective thoughts and glances is to gather experience for the present and profit for the future, just as pilots have charts with the rocks marked down upon them where other vessels have struck and gone down.

The New Year will be an eventful one. A President of the States is to be nominated and elected. Many thinking men at the North and South believe there is "an impending crisis" over our Country that involves issues which must be manfully met, calmly discussed, for the sake of generations yet unborn as well as for the present safety and security of our national existence and institutions.

The savage, bitter personalities and vituperation, which seem to be an unfortunate characteristic of a Republican National Election, and decrease but in a very small degree as the local interests involved in an election diminish, will turn man against man, brother against brother, and only the Great Ruler of the Universe can prophesy where we shall stand as a nation one year from to-day.

But philosophising is heavy and uninteresting on days like this, and so we wish our readers "a Happy New Year;" not one alone but many score of them; may their sweethearts be virtuous and fair,—their wives like olive trees (if they wish it), their children remember the fifth commandment and pay some attention to the others, and if only a fractional part of these blessings descend upon us it will be to each and all happier than its presages, brighter than its appearing, and distinguished from all others as THE HAPPY YEAR.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

SENATE.

Not in session.

HOUSE.

Mr. Morris of Ill. resumed and finished his remarks. Mr. Millson of Va. replied to him. Mr. Grow of Pa. then took the floor to reply to some former remarks by Mr. Branch of N. C., in connection with the defeat of the Post Office Appropriation bill. This brought Mr. Branch out, when a heated and somewhat exciting altercation between Messrs. G. and B. ensued, the latter calling for a retraction, which the former refused to make. Mr. Vallandigham of Ohio then explained his action relative to the Post Office Appropriation bill. The debate was continued by Messrs. Pryor of Va., Hickman of Pa., McKnight of Pa., and Maynard of Tenn., when a vote for Speaker was had, Mr. Sherman still lacking four votes. Mr. Scott of Cal. received 69; Mr. Gilmer, N. C., 14, and the rest were scattering. Adjourned.

Destructive Conflagration!
Coddington Factory in Ruins!
FIVE OTHER BUILDINGS INJURED!

Last Saturday morning about 6 1-4 o'clock a most disastrous fire broke out in the lower par of this city. The alarm was raised and soon the whole department were out, but as there was a light fall of snow in the streets, it was very difficult to make much progress. On reaching the scene, it was found that the fire had originated in, and was fast destroying the Coddington Factory. By 7 o'clock the whole building was enveloped in flames, and so continued to burn until quarter before 8 o'clock, when the roof, flooring, and machinery were all precipitated together to the ground, within the foundation.

The fresh breeze from WSW forced the intense heat, burning cinders, and blazing cotton for a long distance, and it was not long before the office and cloth-room directly in front of the burning mass was in flames, and burnt to the foundation. A small house and shop next north of the factory, owned by Mr. Anderson, was soon on fire, but by the persevering efforts of the firemen, it was only scorched. East of the factory, on the opposite side of the Main Street, three dwelling houses were early on fire, and one in the rear, up a cross street, was also scorched; two of them belonging to James Asher, one to Thomas Read, and one to John Cottrell.

The Coddington Factory property was owned in Providence—nominally by William W. Bishop, Esq., its title being disputed, and now in process of adjudication by the Supreme Court. It was operated nominally by Messrs. R. & H. Lippitt, one of the firm being deceased, but the remaining partner still continuing the enterprise. The property was sold some three years since by the original company, for $40,000; additions and improvements have since been made. It is estimated that the loss upon the factory building and machinery is $100,000; insured for over $70,000. In addition, the office building was totally destroyed, estimated value, $800. Considerable cloth, estimated at $3,000, was saved from this building after it had taken fire. The picker-room which was in a separate building in the rear, and built for fireproof, was not injured. The noble engine and boilers as well as the house over them, were also uninjured.

Mr. Alexander Anderson was insured in the Providence Mutual for $1100, on the buildings injured; loss $900. His insurance upon stock in trade, and furniture, expired about three weeks since; loss $200.

Mr. Thomas Read was insured in the Providence Mutual, upon house, $1300; loss $500.

Mr James Asher had a policy of $700 in the Providence Mutual, upon two houses—the one on Main Street, the other in the rear; damage $400.

Mr. John Cottrell had a policy of $500 in the Providence Mutual; damage $300.

A dwelling house some 50 rods from the conflagration took fire from the falling cinders upon the roof; fortunately it was discovered by the occupants, who, by the use of a few pails of water upon extinguished it.

We took great pains to learn the origin of the fire. Many rumors were in circulation, more or less exaggerated, giving all sorts of wicked motives for a wicked act of incendiarism. But in this instance, we are happy to say that we have good evidence that the origin was purely accidental. When first seen by those outside, it was in the mule room, in the south-east corner of the factory. We are informed also, by those at work in that room, that it took from a lamp in the hand of an operative who was oiling the drum work between the carriage of a mule. The flame of the lamp came in contact with the "flew," a slight kind of cotton fuzz which is excessively inflammable, and which is constantly gathering upon all machinery in a cotton manufactory. That as soon as this communication took place, instantly the ignition flashed over the whole length of the carriage and along the filling threads, and in a moment the whole room was on fire. Passing through belt holes, and along other means of communication, in a few moments the fire reached the next room, and then the fate of the establishment was fixed.

The surging and roaring, and the brilliancy of the flames, made a splendid spectacle, and it was witnessed by thousands of all classes of our citizens. The sparks and burning masses arose to a great height, and were borne a long distance, falling upon and endangering many other structures. We noticed one large mass of fire which lodged upon the steeple of Emmanuel Church, and continued to blaze and sparkle for, what seemed to be, a long time. Had the shingles been free from ice, probably a new fire would have broken out on that edifice. At 7.30 there seemed to be no possible way of saving the whole square, east of the factory from certain destruction. In the minds of nearly all present, the burning of those houses was inevitable; but fortunately, soon after, the internal parts of the factory fell, and that circumstance changed the aspect at once.

The firemen were as prompt as possible under the circumstances. Considering the state of our streets, and the prodigious amount of strength necessary to move the machines, the gratitude of our whole community is due those gallant, courageous, and generous men; for their severe and daring labors, and for the energy by them displayed.

The effect of the fire is sad in the extreme. As near as we can ascertain, two hundred operatives are thrown out of employment, at a season of the year when they need their wages more than at any other time. Many of them are in poverty, and will require assistance from those who have a sufficiency, and we have no doubt that the charity that giveth liberally, will be manifested.

After the above was written, at quarter before 11, a second alarm was given, caused by the fire unexpectedly breaking out upon the roof of both the picker and engine houses, No. 7 Engine Company, with their old machine, soon were on the spot, and by a few well-directed efforts soon put out that cause of alarm.

Hercules Company with their new machine, were first at the fire. They began playing from a cistern in the rear of the fire, but were soon ordered to another locality. Soon after beginning their playing at the second place, they broke their plunger, the cause of which is not satisfactorily ascertained. An experienced machinist was not at work immediately to repair it, and before this will meet the reader's eye, the machine will undoubtedly be all right.

It is not well, at the time of a great disaster like this, when many are suffering—and not the least among them, those who have to bear responsibilities—to indulge in fault-finding. But some one ought to be certain, that in such an establishment as was the Coddington, so important an instrument of safety as a force pump, is ALWAYS in order. It is the freely expressed opinion of gentlemen well qualified to judge, who were early at the fire, that the loss caused by this fire might have been nearly all of it prevented, had the pump been in order. Such a want of preparation is certainly, to say the least, lamentable.

☞ Among the many unpleasant circumstances attending the great fire last Saturday, there was one sight which was pleasing to all lovers of law and justice. We allude to the protection of property in the street by the police. Our police court heretofore have looked after the meanest thieves in existence—those who steal at a fire. But our Mayor, probably acting upon the belief that "prevention is better than cure," took the business out of their (both the Court and thieves) hands. The police and His Honor are entitled to the thanks of our citizens.

MR. MACY FOR SENATOR.

MR. EDITOR:—We regret to learn that the Hon. George B. Knowles has resigned his seat as Senator in the Assembly. But it is now necessary to fill the vacancy with some competent, intelligent and honest man.

We have heard many of our citizens mention the Hon. Seth W. Macy as possessing all those requisite qualifications; he is experienced in Legislation, and is popular with the voters, and no man could be elected who would more energetically advocate our proposed Railroad. We go for Capt. Macy for our next Senator. Keep it "jogging along."

A REPUBLICAN.

☞ At half past 11 o'clock a. m. Saturday, a false alarm of fire was raised, as we are informed, by some rowdies. This again brought out the fire department. One would think that our firemen had enough necessary labor to perform, without being called upon to do that which is unnecessary merely to gratify the unruly. We earnestly hope, that all those detected in raising false alarms, will be attended to by our police, and justice fully meted out to them.

☞ We are requested by the Rector of Emmanuel Church, to state that donations of money, groceries, &c., to meet the wants of the sufferers by the fire of Saturday, will be thankfully received and judiciously appropriated. A large number of industrious and deserving persons are deprived of employment, and have not the means to procure the necessaries of life, and we trust this appeal will meet with a prompt and generous response. The residence of Rev. Mr. Wingate is No 4 Kay Street, where donations may be sent.

☞ The 'local' of the Newport News advertised a few days since that his stocking was to be hung outside of the office on Christmas eve. Our devil says it must have attracted a multitude of people all anxious to witness the sight.—Fall River Press.

It doubtless would, had the said stocking been as dirty and full of holes as yours.

☞ There will be an "Old Folks'" sing this evening at 7 o'clock, at the residence of Milton Hall, Esq., under the leadership of Eben Tourjee, Esq., to which all singers, old and young, are invited.

☞ The "local" owes those ladies one who hung that gigantic stocking to his door Friday evening. They were evidently "up to snuff," and understood the value of a "clean shave," besides being posted up in the matter of vegetables, &c.

FOUSEL'S PABULUM VITÆ,
THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY,

possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASES.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and its most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs, or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. It has invariable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendations and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the remedies employed in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,
16 Boylston Street, Boston, Dec. 19, 1857.

TESTIMONIAL from the Assistant Superintendent of Health:

BOSTON, Oct. 5, 1859.

Sir:—It affords me great pleasure in recommending to those troubled with Pulmonary Complaints the use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; and my own experience has shown that for Coughs and Colds it possesses qualities of great merit, and I would most cheerfully recommend its use to those troubled with the above complaints, so common to our climate.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) DANIEL B. CURTIS,
To F. J. LAFORME. Room 12, City Hall.

F. J. LAFORME, Esq.:

Dear Sir—This may certify that I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and I consider it the best article that I have ever used for pulmonary complaints. My wife has used it for severe colds, and its effect was magical; and I have no objection to your referring in any way to me that you deem expedient.

I have given the above named a fair trial, and with confidence advise all that are afflicted with colds or pulmonary complaints to try it.

DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE, —FOR THE TREATMENT OF—

Special Diseases,

No. 28 Union St., Providence, R. I.

Circulars giving full information with references and testimonials, sent by mail. Also a Pamphlet on Diseases of Women with observations on Private and Chronic Maladies generally, sent free by enclosing a stamp to Dr. H. N. MATTISON as above.

Dr. M. is a thoroughly educated physician of ... years practice, giving his whole attention to the above named diseases. Persons at a distance, therefore, having any important and difficult case in this specialty will save much time and expense by applying either personally or by letter, to the REMEDIAL INSTITUTE.

N. B.—Accommodations for patients from abroad wishing to remain in the city for a short time under treatment.

A WORD TO INVALIDS.

All who have any serious or troublesome disease will very naturally seek advice somewhere, and this leads me to say a few words on the choice of a physician. And first, let all quacks, impostors and humbugs alone. If you have an intelligent physician in your vicinity apply to him immediately, and follow his directions explicitly, and for a sufficient length of time, and he will probably cure you; if not, then apply to one who makes your disease a specialty, for no physician in general practice, no matter how eminent, can treat a given disease, or class of diseases, as succesfully as one of the same ability who makes such diseases a specialty, and devotes his whole attention to them. Educated physicians hitherto have stood aloof from making private diseases a specialty, and hence they have been monopolized by quacks.—The fear of losing caste in society, or of being classed among charlatans by the profession, has too long stood in the way of this most desirable result. What disgrace is there in treating a class of diseases specially that all physicians treat in general practice? Ricord of Paris, and Acton of London, both make Private Diseases a specialty, and yet their fame is an enviable, as it is world-wide. It is in fact the only remedy for one of the most heinous and destructive systems of quackery in private diseases as practiced in all the larger cities throughout the country.—But to return. I said let quacks and impostors alone. Their advertisements fill the newspapers and are well calculated to deceive the inexperienced, made up as they are of the most extravagant pretensions, but without a shadow of evidence of the truth of what they say. Advertising in itself is no sin, but deceptive advertisements are an abomination, and no advertising physician is entitled to any confidence whatever who does not give to the public the most undoubted guarantee both of his honesty and his skill.

In offering my services in a speciality which has heretofore been almost exclusively in the hands of impostors, I ask no man to employ me who is not fully convinced that I shall treat him courteously, deal honorably and with the strictest fidelity, and give him the best possible chance for a speedy and permanent cure. H. N. MATTISON, o11 d wtf No. 28 Union st., Prov. R. I.

Blood Food !

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over two thousand consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Coughs, Cold, Head-ache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of appetite, or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Dibility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed or your Organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or disease in any manner whatever one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints and Weakness, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FLOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefited by its use. It gives strength to the body and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success. For full directions, see circulars.

Price $1 per battle.

Mothers !

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.

First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. Second—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show; the very roots from which it is distilled being from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation, viz:

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsion or fits, we earnestly recommend you to lose no time in procuring it. Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

Sold by CHURCH & DUPONT, Druggists, No. 36 Maiden Lane, New York.

THE GREAT WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, Maine, Jan. 29, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co:

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at you service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer to the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, the Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflamation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly,
J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds 1-2 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

TO THE NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

RUMORED DUEL BETWEEN GROW AND BRANCH.

WASHINGTON Dec. 31.

[Herald correspondence.]—Mr. Branch refrained from sending a message to Mr. Grow till after the Globe was issued, at about one o'clock, evidently supposing that Mr. Grow might suppress his language. The report was truthful.

There is a current report to-night that shortly after the Globe was distributed in the House to-day Mr. Grow received a challenge and accepted it promptly.

The parties were noticed during the afternoon to be indifferent to the proceedings of the House, and were engaged in private conversation with friends and in writing letters. This strengthened the rumor.

The police are on the alert to-night and efforts are making to arrest the principals. They have not been found at their rooms. There is reason to believe that there is some truth in the report.

It is further stated that Messrs. Keitt and Pryor are the friends of Branch, and Mr. Giddings, of Texas, and Mr. Fenton of New York, are the friends of Mr. Grow [Times correspondence.]—There was a challenge passed to-day from Branch to Grow, but the result is not yet known. Mutual friends think the case one of easy adjustment. Branch has but to say that he did not intend to impugn Mr. Grow's conduct as a gentleman, but politically as the leader of a great party.

This done, Mr. Grow would be compelled to retract his offensive language and the matter would be adjusted. This will probably be the turn which things will take, but up to a late hour to-night the difficulty remains unadjusted.

There are rumors of an intention on the part of a large number of contractors to stop the mail service after the 1st of January, but it is believed they are only designed to hasten the organization. Contracts are made for the period of four years at the discretion of the department to terminate them, which is rarely done.

An insurrection of slaves is reported in Bolivar, a town of some 500 inhabitants, in Polk County, Missouri. This county is about 150 miles southwest of Jefferson City, the capital of the State. In 1850 the whole population of the county was 6,186, of whom only 369 were slaves. The circumstances of the present difficulty are not very clearly stated, and it is not easy to decide whether the whites acted from real cause, or from panic. It is said that a gang of negroes attacked a few white men in the public square, but the latter were soon reenforced, and drove the negroes out into the woods. The negroes threatened to burn the town, but, says the dispatch, a vigilant watch was kept, and all their attempts failed. Several blacks were arrested and imprisoned, and some were severely punished; a Vigilance Committee was formed; everybody armed himself; and finally the excitement was subsiding. It does not appear that any white man was injured; and, indeed, the whole affair wears the aspect of exaggeration and groundless alarm. But, whatever it may have been, it was apparently a movement of the negroes alone, without the promptings or the aid of any Abolitionist. No John Brown is mentioned as having been concerned in it.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases, Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.

PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

THE Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their form and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their annual report upon the treatment of sexual diseases, for the year ending July 1st, 1858, expresses the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the consulting surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope,) free of charge, on the receipt of two stamps for postage.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCA'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting regulating, and removing all obstruction from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.—Price $1 per box. For sale at 132 Thames street, corner Church street, and at 12 Washington Square, opposite State House. Orders for the trade so addressed will be supplied at lowest manufacturer's prices. NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT,

TO ALL WANTING FARMS,
A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTH EAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAMDEN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD, NEW JERSEY.

An old estates consisting of several thousands of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the Middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved the places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $10 to $20 per acre, the soil is of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vineyards and Peach Orchards, planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from its location is the BEST IN THE UNION.

Production bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price than the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settlers has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle States; he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand. He can buy every article he wants at the cheaper price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reserved,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown.—The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place; good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt, meet persons from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvement and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held on refusal.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, THE RAILROAD COMPANY GIVES A FREE TICKET FOR SIX MONTHS, AND A HALF-PRICE TICKET FOR THIRTY YEARS.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON,

in connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturalarisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in the place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements, or Founderies for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, as it would effect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

THE CHRISTIAN LITURGY.

ELEGANTLY bound in embroidered morocco, gilt edge, price 75 cts. For sale by C. E. HAMMETT jr.

The Liturgy of the Church of America now offered to the Public, is drawn from various religious writings, and breathes the spirit of the Bible.

The Forms of Adoration and Petition, and its summary of Christian faith and Christian doctrine are intelligible and plain. Its Catechism is pure, and beautifully adapted to the comprehension of young minds—enlightening without confusing them—and preparing the way for holy thoughts and true religion.

The work throughout is well arranged, and of a character to demand the close examination of new congregations of faithful men proposing to unite and form themselves into a visible Church of Christ.

The religious feeling which pervades the Liturgy of the Church of America, and its freedom from—what is too common in liturgical and extemporaneous prayers—an attempt to make the devotions of the Church a means of indoctrinating the worshippers in a sectarian creed, is sufficient to recommend it to attention.

But the Public are particularly called to notice the holy object which it has in view. The purpose of the Church is to provide a Liturgy which shall comprehend those doctrines, and those only, which are essential to guide the mind in a right worship of God. It is obvious that men who differ as to the origin of sin, or as to the precise nature of the atonement, may nevertheless equally love God, and may be alike grateful to him for his mercy, and desire his approval, and seek his will, and adore his infinite perfections. They may differ on many theological questions, and yet may have the same sentiments of devout trust, and reverential gratitude, and may equally feel the need of divine help. If they may thus agree in what is essential to devotion, why may they not unite in religious worship? If they will abstain from obtruding into the act of worship those theological speculations which have no necessary connection with it, why may they not bow together before that God which they all adore?

The Liturgy of the CHURCH OF AMERICA does not profess to teach a creed, but to give expressions to those feelings which should be in man's heart when he looks up to God. It would leave the theological questions on which sects divide to be settled by each individual in his own way; while it would draw all Christian people together, in the sentiment and offices of devotion.

The Christian Liturgy, published in 1847, for the CHURCH OF AMERICA, is based on the Book of Common Prayer used by the Episcopal Church, or Church of England, in this country; much is added to the devotional part, and more substracted from the doctrinal part, and it approaches considerably to the Chapel Liturgy published in 1785.

Heads of families and teachers of religion proposing to minister the Gospel to the numerous societies of Christians among us are solicited to examine this book with care and to accept or reject it according to their individual judgments. And it is respectfully suggested to those who approve of its design, to read the several services therein put forth, on all occasions where their hearers are of different religious creeds, or of unbelievers will tend to promote peace, good will, and brotherhood, and greatly contribute to the usefulness of the Church of America.

CAUTION.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them—Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with Tickets at One Dollar—$100,000 Capital Prizes are offered for $5. All such, in every instance, Tickets and if money is sent to them, are frauds, so much thrown away—for Tickets, it is a chance of getting without the shadow of Lotteries where a prize. Beware of all ly large in the Capital Prize is unusual. In every comparison to the price of Tickets, for instance where large Prizes are offered for a small cost of Tickets, put it down for a certain fraud.
